

COVID-19 AND YOUR TRAVEL INSURANCE POLICY FROM BRYTE

FAQ

CREDIT CARD PURCHASES

Dear Client

Approaching risk with purpose is fundamental to our business and Bryte is deeply committed to protecting our customers, partners and employees to ensure the sustainability of livelihoods. Now, more than ever, the risk that COVID-19 presents to humanity requires us all to be united and work together so that we can slow the rate at which this virus is spreading.

We understand that this is a time of great anxiety. Given the current restrictions imposed on international travel through the declaration of a state of disaster on 15 March 2020, you may be disappointed that your travel plans need to be cancelled. That said, we have included herein important travel policy-related information as well as some FAQs.

We'd like to point out that if you postpone your trip and the duration of the trip remains unchanged, we will change the dates of travel on your travel insurance policy certificate at no cost to you once you have rebooked your trip. Please take note that if you've claimed against your policy, this is not applicable, and you would need to purchase a new travel insurance policy.

Please pay special attention to the following

- Except where travel to a particular country is prohibited, the choice whether to proceed with your travel arrangements, or not, ultimately lies with you
- All claims for any losses incurred from not travelling or changing travel plans, is assessed by our claims department, taking into consideration Bryte's policy terms and conditions. Each case will be assessed based on its own merit and all decisions will be informed accordingly, in alignment with the policy terms and conditions as well as guidance from the *WHO or the relevant local authorities

The travel insurance cover and benefits that you have – and how these respond to the COVID-19 pandemic – depends on the type of the travel insurance product purchased.

We have grouped our products into two categories, for ease of reference.

1. Automatic credit card travel insurance
2. Top-up credit card travel insurance
